

Enter the Nene Valley 10 early

THE city's longest surviving road race takes place on Sunday, December 7 when the Nene Valley 10 is held around the streets and parks of Bretton.

And organisers Nene Valley Harriers advise entering early as entries are going well.

Indeed, such has been the interest in the race – first held in 1978 – already that organisers are looking for extra marshals to ensure the smooth running of the event. Anyone interested in marshalling can contact Rob Lornie at rlornie@sky.com.

Bonuses of £50 are on offer if the course records of 48.35 (men) and 55.41 (women) are broken. Entry fee is £7 or £9 for unaffiliated runners and should be sent to Dave Robson, 13 Rock Road, Peterborough PE1 3BU. Entries on the day will be £1 extra.
